Pre- Enrollment Form for Esthetic Instructors

Becoming an educator in esthetics is a rewarding career decision. As you choose to educate or train others by formal instruction it is a role that can affect the lives of countless new enthusiastic esthetic students as they pursue their dream of a new career. The demand for a well qualified esthetic instructor exceeds the supply, as a successful graduate from Ensynergy Southeastern School of Esthetics you are prepared to succeed as an instructor. An Esthetic Instructor usually makes an hourly rate of $18 - $30 an hour depending on her/his experience. Skill development, knowledge building techniques and an overall passion to educate others allows you to become even more successful as an instructor; there are endless possibilities for advancement such as: Freshman or Phase I Instructor, Advanced Class Instructor, Theory or Laboratory Instructor, Director of Student Affairs, Director of Education, Dean of Students and School Owner.

The program is divided into 5 areas of instruction: Taught in English

The Professional Teacher - 100 credit/clock hours

Introduces the characteristics, behaviors, knowledge and skills necessary to become an effective instructor.

Student Motivation and Learning - 100 credit/clock hours

Provides the instructor trainee with principles of instruction for different learning styles. It assists in providing information on various student personalities and how to motivate those individual differences.

Methods, Management, and Materials - 115 credit/clock hours
